

Planner and Speaker Disclosure Form

In accordance with the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education’s (ACCME’s) Standards for Commercial Support, all planners, teachers, and authors involved in the development of CME content are required to disclose to the accredited provider their relevant financial relationships. An individual has a relevant financial relationship if he or she (or spouse/partner) has a financial relationship in any amount occurring in the last 12 months with a commercial interest whose products or services are discussed in the CME activity content over which the individual has control.

Title of Activity

Relevant financial relationships will be disclosed to the activity audience. Atlanta Progressive CME is committed to the development and delivery of independent, non-biased, evidence-based clinical content.

Note: A list of a planner’s or speaker’s affiliations with any commercial entity will not be accepted. You must address the question of potential conflict as it pertains only to the content covered in this specific medical education activity.
